READ BY JUDE SOMERS FOR LIBRIVOX.ORG

The Tale of Ferdinand Frog by Arthur Scott Bailey

The wild folk in Pleasant Valley agreed that Ferdinand Frog was an agreeable person to have around. No matter what happened, he was always cheerful. Nobody ever heard of his losing his temper, though to be sure he was sometimes the means of other people losing theirs. These stories are about Ferdinand Frog's adventures with his animal neighbours. - Summary by Jude Somers

Read by Jude Somers, Meta Coordinated by Ann Boulais, and Proof Listened by Linette Geisel. Total running time: 01:30:30
